

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air a documentary from veterans regarding the Vietnam War is a wonderful idea. It is about time someone has the guts to let the other side be told. We have heard nothing for weeks and months except propaganda from Michael Moore, Kattie Kelly, CBS's memogate, etc... but no one has let us hear anything from the veterans. They have been attacked as liars, while the lies from Michael Moore, Kattie Kelly and Dan Rather have been taken as gospel. News should be fair and we should be able to hear both sides, so let us hear the other side for once.

Thank you.
